

The Signs of the Hour and the Life Hereafter

A Journey from the Temporal World to the Final Judgment

chat&decidelatina

The Foundation of Faith

The Greatest Signs Before the End of Time

The Greatest Trial: The Appearance of the Dajjal

The Warning

One of the greatest trials humanity will ever face. Every prophet warned his people about this deceiver. Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him) emphasized its seriousness because it occurs during humanity's final era.

The Deception

He will claim divinity and be granted extraordinary abilities as a test. Many will be deceived by witnessed miracles. True believers will remain steadfast by relying on faith and knowledge.

The Description

Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him) described him in detail: he will be one-eyed, and the word 'Kafir' (disbeliever) will be written between his eyes, visible to every sincere believer.

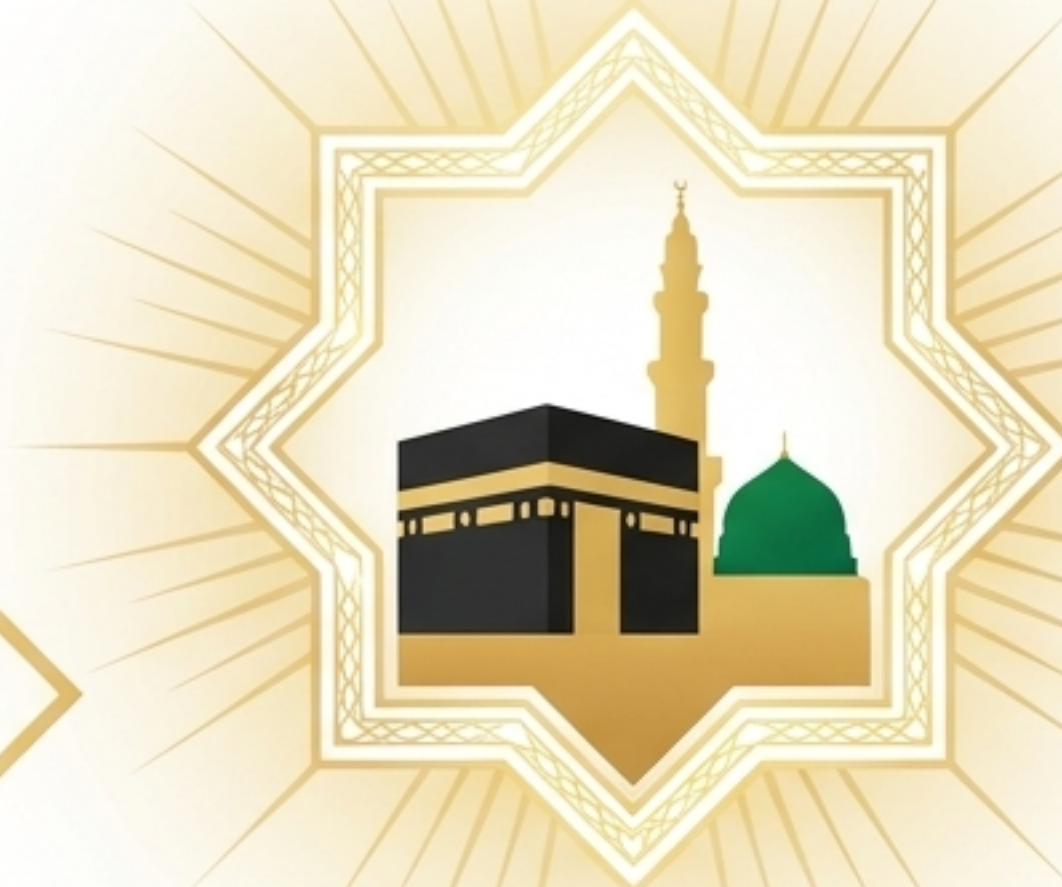

كافر

The Mechanics of the Deception

The Illusion of Power

- ✱ - Travels rapidly across the earth, calling people to worship him instead of Allah.
- ✱ - Appears to possess powers: causing rain to fall, bringing apparent prosperity to followers, and hardship to those who reject him.
- ✱ - Note: These extraordinary events are tests from Allah, not signs of true divinity.

Divine Protection

- ✱ - Despite his vast influence, he will never be able to enter the sacred cities of Makkah or Madinah.
- ✱ - Both cities will be heavily protected by angels.

The Great Battle

The Conflict

Before the destruction of the Dajjal, a monumental battle takes place between the forces of truth and falsehood.

The Trial

The Muslims will face enormous trials and sacrifices during this period.

The Promise

Allah will grant ultimate victory to those who remain patient and steadfast. The forces of truth and falsehood.

The Transition

This climactic battle marks one of the final stages before the return of Prophet Isa (peace be upon him).

The True Nature of Prophet Isa (Jesus)

Islam teaches that Prophet Isa (peace be upon him) was neither killed nor crucified. Rather, Allah raised him to Himself, and he will return before the Day of Judgment.

"But they killed him not, nor crucified him; it was only made to appear so to them... Rather, Allah raised him up to Himself."
(Qur'an 4:157–158)

"And indeed, he will be a sign of the Hour."
(Qur'an 43:61)

The Descent and the Mission

Step 1: The Arrival

Prophet Isa descends near Damascus.

Step 2: The Unity

He immediately joins the ranks of the believers.

Step 3: The Governance

He will not bring a new religion. He will rule according to the guidance of Islam and the teachings brought by Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him).

The Defeat of the False Messiah

The Pursuit: After his descent, Prophet Isa (peace be upon him) will actively pursue the Dajjal.

The Conclusion: Prophet Isa ultimately defeats the Dajjal.

The Result: With this destruction, one of the greatest trials in human history comes to a definitive end, and falsehood is overcome by the truth.

The Transformation of the Earth

The Era of the Trial

- Widespread deception and falsehood.
- Oppression and deep hardship for true believers.
- Worship demanded for the deceiver.

The Era of Justice and Peace

- Prophet Isa (peace be upon him) establishes righteousness and removes corruption.
- Governs with complete fairness according to Allah's guidance.
- People worship Allah alone.
- Oppression disappears entirely, and security becomes widespread.

Synthesis Statement: This period represents one of the most peaceful times in human history before the final events leading to the Day of Judgment.

What Happens After Death?

Core Principle: Islam teaches that death is not the end of existence, but merely the beginning of another stage of life.

Stage 3: The Awaiting

- The soul remains in Barzakh until the Day of Resurrection.

Stage 2: The Life of the Grave (Barzakh)

- The soul enters Barzakh, an intermediary stage, remaining there until the appointed time.

Stage 1: The End of Worldly Life

- Every person will experience death.

The Day of Resurrection

The Gathering:
When Allah commands, all people across all of time will be resurrected and gathered for judgment.

The Presentation of Deeds: Nothing is hidden. Every single deed, whether great or small, will be presented before Allah.

The Final Judgment

The Outcome of Faith

Those who believed in Him and lived righteous lives will receive His mercy and enter Paradise.

The Outcome of Rejection

Those who rejected the truth after it became clear and persisted in disbelief will be held completely accountable for their actions.

Preparing for the Hereafter

The True Purpose: The signs of the Hour are not merely descriptions of future events; they are urgent reminders.

The temporary nature of this world reminds us that true success lies exclusively in obedience to Allah, sincerity in worship, and following the guidance brought by His prophets.

Perfect Wisdom and Justice

The world has an appointed end. Every human being will ultimately return to Allah. The appearance of the Dajjal, the return of Prophet Isa, the triumph of truth, and the final judgment all demonstrate Allah's perfect wisdom.

For the believer, these events are not a source of fear alone, but a profound call to remain steadfast, strengthen faith, and prepare for the everlasting life that awaits.

chat&decidelatina